 The list of FCC Providers is for those Providers who requested to have their information disseminated to the community. This list is not all inclusive of all FCC providers, only those that wish to be listed on the Military Child-care website are included. Below are the types of childcare the FCC providers offer.

USDA SPONSORSHIP

The Hill AFB FCC program is a sponsor of the Childcare Food Program.

“In accordance with Federal Law and U.S. Dept. of Agriculture policy, this institution is prohibited from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.” To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-941

PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Parent Advisory committee (PAC) meetings are held monthly, typically on the third Tuesday of the month. Meetings are held at the Child Development Center (CDC) from 1130-1230 and a free lunch is provided.

UNLICENSED CARE

Any military ID card holder providing childcare in their home for more than 10 hours per week must be licensed. Unlicensed childcare may result in the loss of Base Housing privileges. If you suspect someone of providing unlicensed childcare please call 777-0695, a child's wellbeing may depend on your call. Individuals that have not been approved to be FCC providers should not be permitted to advertise or post notices in publications or bulletin boards.

TAX REMINDER

Parents must request the providers Tax ID number or Social Security Number (SSN) for tax purposes. The FCC office cannot give out a Social Security Number due to Privacy Act Information Laws

CARE REQUIREMENTS

All children receiving care from an FCC provider will need the following for your children:

- AF 1181 Registration Form
- Copy of up-to-date immunizations
- Current flu shot
- Allergies identified

All forms needed are located on our website 75fss.com/family-child-care

FCC PROVIDER CONTRACTS

All FCC Providers have a written contract for parents to carefully read prior to signing and agreeing to care. The FCC Office does not regulate provider's contracts or fees. Please review the FCC Providers house of operations, fees, closures, sick days, and back-up care policies. Parents are highly encouraged to request a copy of the signed contract.

FCC PROVIDER REFERRAL LIST

The Family Child Care (FCC) program strives to help meet the needs of the community with maintaining high quality childcare. For assistance and information about programs and providers please call the FCC office.

*The list of FCC Providers is for those who requested to have their information disseminated to the community.

TYPES OF CARE

FCC Care include full and part time daily care, hourly care, PCS Care, evening/weekend/date night care, over night care, and support for the Air Force Extended Duty Care.

EXTENDED CARE PROGRAM

Call the Family Child Care office for registration, application and eligibility requirements for all programs.

Extended Duty Care: For duty-related reasons beyond typical 50-hour childcare arrangements.

Pre Deployment Care: Military members may qualify for 16 hours of free care before a 30 day or longer deployment.

During Deployment Care: Military member's spouses may qualify for 16 hours of free care for EACH month during a deployment.

Returning Home Care: Military members returning from a deployment for 30 days or more might be eligible for 16 hours of free care. Hours must be used within 60 days of return.

Home Community Care: Reservists that are required to work the primary UTA weekend might qualify for HCC. Both parents are required to be working to use this program.

PCS Program: 20 hours of free childcare per child in an FCC home within 60 days of PCSing onto or from the base. For vouchers, visit MFRC or call (801) 777-4681

BECOME A PROVIDER

Enjoy working out of your home, while caring for your own children and owning your own business while adding to the family's income without having to work outside the home.

All FCC Providers receive:

- Assistance in setting up program, including supplies and best business practices.
- Monthly training on child growth and development.
- Child abuse prevention and reporting procedures.
- Positive guidance and more!

Providers are needed for evening/night shifts, extended duty care, home community care and returning home care, weekends or TDY, and hourly care.

Hill AFB is seeking providers to care for children with special needs including (but not limited to): asthma, allergies, cerebral palsy, HIV/AIDS, physical impairments, ADHD, autism, Down syndrome etc. The FCC program approves providers, employs staff and accepts children with chronic health issues.
